Learn more about our mobile New Language apps, new New Language careers, new connections speak the language in 10 minutes a day I learn French and I love the translated dialogues they have at the end of many units. They use native, non-robotic speakers and speak at a natural pace, so you can hear the connection of the words. I like how easy it is to use, and how amazing the community is. The lessons are designed very well and the app is very easy to use. Just choose the language you want to learn and let the app guide you all the way through. Whatever language you learn, it teaches you the actual concepts of grammar and how to use them, which I find remarkable. The smart learning engine you've probably tried to learn a new language before and gave up. It's not easy, we get it! Our intelligent learning engine adapts to each individual student, creating a learning path that has only the right level of problem, so you stay motivated and make progress faster. Learn from the locals We bring the context of the outside world into your lessons with video clips of real native speakers. Listening to a number of different styles of conversations and real accents will help you naturally build your ability to understand the nuances and beauty of another language. No grammatical rules you read this right. When it comes to speaking in the language, it is more important to have the confidence to speak and be understood than to worry about accuracy. show that traditional school grammar teaching methods can really slow your progress, so we put them on the back burner. And more... To help our learning engine personalize your learning experience even more and keep you you You can also set daily goals and learning reminders, as well as join the leaderboards to compete with other students. INSTRUCTIONS You can keep your information at every stage of the process. When you prepare an application, you must print out the application form and receive the application. You must bring these documents along with all the supporting documents when you send the file to the relevant consular service or an external service provider. N.B.: Visa applications may not be filed more than 3 months before the start of the trip to obtain a long-stay visa and 6 months to obtain a short stay visa. When you create a group app, you can add additional apps to form a group app. The group can consist of no more than 6 people or 6 trips. N.B.: You will be invited to a group appointment if you wish to apply for a group. Create an account or log in to an existing account, select the language for the application form (French, English or Spanish) and complete the form. To facilitate the process, online help is available in Arabic, Chinese and Russian languages after you have chosen the language from the menu at the top of the page.
